

A Memorial to Pat Mathias

My good friend Pat Mathias has passed away. We had a lot of good times together over the past decades. Lots of memories being “medics” together at various functions, drinking bad wine, and stirring things up in general. We had fun things planned for this summer and I am sad she was called too early. Such a good lady will be remembered.

